

Short Films for Food Day

Saturday, October 24th, 2015

11:00 a.m. - Kanbar Forum

Presented by Gary Meyer of Eat Drink Films

Join EatDrinkFilms and the Exploratorium for a cornucopia of short documentaries and contemporary animations in celebration of Food Day, a nation-wide series of events "inspiring Americans to change their diets and our food policies." Curated by Gary Meyer, this appetizing array of films includes Food for Thought, Food for Life, a poetic documentary by Susan Rockefeller that examines agribusiness and alternative farming methods, inviting farmers, chefs, researchers, educators, and advocates to provide inspiration for and examples of sustainable environmental practices.

Western Spaghetti (2008, 2 min) by PES.

Omega Lifetime: Grant Achatz (2014, 2 min) by Eric Wolfinger.

Dictionary of a Food Hero (2015, 4 min) by Kevin Longa.

Sour Death Balls (1993, 4 min) by Jessica Yu.

Food For Thought (2015, 22 min) by Susan Rockefeller.

Flamin' Hot (2014, 3 min) by Helen DiMichel.

Hands in the Orchestra (2014, 4 min) by Kevin Longa.

At Needle Point (2015, 4 min) by Jamie DeWolf.

Fresh Guacamole (2015, 2 min) by PES.

Homeward (2014, 4 min) by Daniel Klein and Mirra Fine.

Food Rules (2012, 2 min) by Art House Studios.

An Act of Resistance (2014, 4 min) by The Perennial Plate.

Una Furtiva Lagrima (2012, 3 min) by Carlo Vogelete.

57 (The Average Age of the American Farmer) (2014, 3 min) by The Lexicon of Sustainability.

Mama's Steam Buns (2013, 2 min) by Eric Wolfinger.

Change the Tune (2015, 2 min) by CSPITV.

The Cooking Project (2008, 8 min) by SFGovTV.

The Cook (2008, 21 min) by Roscoe Arbuckle.

Find out more about our program at exploratorium.edu/cinema

