DOCUMENTARY FEATURES

KING GEORGES

DIRECTOR Erika Frankel

Fiery French chef Georges Perrier is on a crusade to save his world-renowned 40-year-old Philadelphia restaurant, Le Bec-Fin, from closing. For decades, Perrier was on top and Le Bec-Fin was consistently rated as one of the best restaurants in the country. However, times and tastes have changed. What was once cutting edge is now out of favor. Director Erika Frankel's King Georges captures us with mastery in the kitchen and charisma on the dining room floor, as we root for a determined, tragic-comic figure and his quixotic fight to keep his cherished culinary traditions alive.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

FOR GRACE

DIRECTORS Mark Helenowski, Kevin Pang

In this insightful documentary, directors Kevin Pang and Mark Helenowski deftly capture the compelling story of renowned chef Curtis Duffy as he prepares to open his dream restaurant, Grace, at one of the worst times in his personal life. His is a fascinating story that includes a traumatic family tragedy which propelled him to focus much more intensely on his culinary ambitions.

From early on, he found solace in the kitchen. With encouragement from a warm-hearted Home Economics teacher in his early teens, Duffy realizes his dream. We cheer him along in this enthralling story of inventive cuisine, passionate zeal, family, and sacrifice.

Screening times:

WED 1:45PM, FARMSTEAD, ST HELENA

THU 5:00PM, CAMEO CINEMA, ST HELENA

FRI 10:00AM, UPTOWN THEATRE, YOUNTVILLE

Meet Curtis Duffy live at the Q&As following the screenings!

AWARDS SEASON

CITY OF GOLD

DIRECTOR Laura Gabbert

Director Laura Gabbert follows Jonathan Gold, the first and only food critic to win a Pulitzer Prize, as he navigates the underground, transformative Los Angeles food scene. Exploring taco trucks and mini-mall noodles, Gold focuses on surveying authentic, familial local food as opposed to the usual bailiwick of food critics: four-star restaurants. With a hearty appetite for food and culture, and a refined and eclectic palate, Gold takes audiences on a journey through out the ever-changing culinary scene in Los Angeles.

Screening times:

THU 1:30PM, NAPA VALLEY COLLEGE, NAPA

FRI 10:00AM, LINCOLN THEATER, YOUNTVILLE

Meet Jonathan Gold live at the Q&As following the screenings!
